CHERILYN JOHNSTON RELEASES NEW WESTERN SWING AND COUNTRY HYMNS RECORDING

Dallas, TX , February 11, 2018. Albert Talley, the President of the Texas Steel Guitar Association and member of various Western Swing Hall of Fames , has produced a new recording of vocalist Cherilyn Johnston, preforming her favorite hymns in a western swing and country style. Cherilyn's vocals in "Out Of Darkness" present the hymns as you have never heard. Since she is from Texas, she has the western swing in her DNA. Her songs has an energy that carries the listener to a joyful, uplifting experience.

Accompanying her energizing vocals, all of the band members are associated with the Texas Steel Guitar Association and all excel in western swing and country style. With fiddle, steel guitar, and band, Cherilyn hopes to introduce her Western Swing music to a larger audience of music lovers. Western Swing originated in Texas and is a mix of Jazz, Swing, Dixieland, and Country styles.

Also included with nine hymns are three original songs that Cherilyn believes the listener will enjoy.

The recording, "Out Of Darkness", is available on her website, www.CherSongs.com, and on iTunes, Amazon, Spotify and other online music services.

Cherilyn Johnston is an artist that sings, writes, and plays guitar, piano, and bass guitar. She presently serves as the Band Leader at the Lone Star Cowboy Church of Ellis County in Red Oak, Texas.
